 By letter dated April 25, 1946, the New York Field Division advised the Washington Field Division in response to its letter dated April 18, 1946, requesting copies of articles appearing in the New York Journal American published in November, 1945, on the Adams, Kravchenko and Witczak cases, that the Washington Field Office should obtain copies of these articles from the Bureau.

On May 1, 1946, Special Agent Lambert G. Zander of the Washington Field Office, in the absence of Supervisor Robert B. Newby, telephonically advised Special Agent F. L. Jones that the Washington Field Office desired copies of these articles to present to officials of the telephone company in order to acquaint them with the present investigative activities of the Bureau, in an effort to obtain further cooperation from the telephone company in the Field Office's investigation of Russian and Communist matters.

Special Agent Zander was advised that it was not felt practical to submit these particular articles to anyone in the telephone company since the articles are not true in every respect and further that they are critical towards the United States State Department, and, if a representative of the Bureau showed them to someone at the telephone company, they would consider them as being approved by the Bureau. Further, the Bureau would be placed in a position where it would appear that they approved the Journal American's criticism of the State Department for failure to take action on those cases.

It was suggested to Special Agent Zander that, if the Washington Field Office wants to use any articles for that purpose, they may consider using some newspaper articles concerning the Corby case, since that case has developed information along lines which we would hope to develop through technical sources and further, the case has already gone to trial.

ACTION: None. The above is submitted for your information.

The following address was checked and the name of the person residing there obtained:

908 Clinton Street, Philadelphia - ALEXANDER PORTNOFF

Information about all these persons is set out below:

EDWARD W. ANDREWS

The following investigation was conducted by Assistant Special Agent in Charge, WILLIAM C. HINZE, JR.:

The Boston Field Division on November 27, 1945, requested this office to review its files for any information it might have on EDWARD W. ANDREWS who was said to reside at 69th and 10th Streets, Oak Lane, Philadelphia. There was no record in the local telephone directory of an EDWARD W. ANDREWS residing in the vicinity of 69 and 10th Streets, Philadelphia, and the indices of this office were searched with negative results.

THOMAS S. AVESON, SR.

The following investigation was conducted by the writer:

The Washington Field Division, on December 17, 1945, requested the name of the subscriber to telephone number Swarthmore 02891. There being no such number, Swarthmore 0289 was checked and found to be listed to THOMAS S. AVESON, SR., 412 Park Avenue, Swarthmore.

The records of the Voters Registration Commission, Media, Pennsylvania, reflect that AVESON was born in England in 1868. He was naturalized in a Circuit Court of Rhode Island on November 4, 1895, and that he is not employed. The Commission had no record of anyone else voting from AVESON'S address at the present time. When he registered to vote on September 24, 1937, he stated that he was a Republican and had been residing in the election district fifteen years. He last voted in November 1945. He was described as follows:

Race	White
Height	5'6 3/4"
Hair	"Mixed"
Eyes	Gray

The records of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania reflect that the number Swarthmore 0289 has been listed to AVESON since 1929.

The current Suburban Telephone Directory has a listing for THOMAS S. AVESON, JR., 7948 Pleasant Avenue, Wyndmoor, Pennsylvania.

The indices were negative on both AVESONS.

WALTER and THERESA BISHOP

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent THOMAS F. RING:

The Washington Field Division, on November 30, 1945, requested the identity of the holder of Pennsylvania License Tag H6227 (1945).

It was found that this number was assigned to WALTER and THERESA BISHOP, 314 Division Street, Gallitzin, Cambria County, Pennsylvania.

The files of this office reflect that one THERESA BISHOP, R.D. #3, Prospect Heights, Easton, Pennsylvania, born at Berhida Vesperm, Megy, Hungary on October 15, 1888 and by occupation a housewife, residing at 826 North Main Street, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, applied for citizenship in September 1942 and was naturalized in August 1943. It was not possible to determine whether she was identical with the holder of the license plates mentioned above.

There was no information available on WALTER BISHOP.

MOSES LAWRENCE BLUMENTHAL

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent THOMAS F. RING:

PH 65-4043

The Washington Field Division on December 17, 1945, requested this office to identify the subscriber to Melrose 3596.

It was ascertained that this number was listed to MOSES LAWRENCE BLUMENTHAL, 218 East Church Road, Elkins Park, Pennsylvania. The files of Dun & Bradstreet, Philadelphia, reflect that BLUMENTHAL was born at Wilmington, North Carolina, July 13, 1879. He is employed as Secretary and Assistant Treasurer of BLUMENTHAL BROTHERS, INC., candy manufacturers. His wife, CATHERINE BLUMENTHAL, about 52 years of age and of Russian Nationality, until November 1943, has acted as Canteen Manager for the Red Cross. She is at present manager of the Antique Shop in STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER, a leading Philadelphia Department Store.

The indices were negative on both Mr. and Mrs. BLUMENTHAL. MOSES BLUMENTHAL is described as follows:

Race	White
Height	5'4"
Weight	163 lbs.
Eyes	Hazel
Complexion	Dark
Hair	Grey

CUTLER CHEMICAL COMPANY

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent ROBERT C. BURNS:

The New York Field Division on December 11, 1945, requested the identity of the subscriber to telephone number RITTENHOUSE 9805.

The subscriber to this number is the CUTLER CHEMICAL COMPANY, 1701 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

The files of Dun & Bradstreet, Philadelphia, reflect that this is an unincorporated company owned by LOUIS E. CUTLER and his wife RUTH CUTLER, nee RUTH TAYLOR. The company was established in May 1941 by LOUIS E. CUTLER. Sometime thereafter, his wife and his father-in-law, MEYER TAYLOR, were made partners. MEYER TAYLOR withdrew in December 1943.

LOUIS CUTLER was born in Philadelphia on January 8, 1911. In 1934, he graduated from Temple University with a Master of Science Degree. On January 2, 1940, with a ~~NATHAN R. STEIN~~ as partner, he organized the C & S Chemical Company in Philadelphia, with a net worth of $500.00. At this time, LOUIS CUTLER and his wife were worth approximately $15,000.00. This partnership was dissolved on May 23, 1940 because the business was insufficient to support two partners.

PH 65-4043

The CUTLER CHEMICAL COMPANY is engaged in the manufacture and sale of greases, oil soaps, chemicals, concentrates, syrups and drugs. It also acts as a manufacture sales representative and is exclusive agent for the Pennsylvania Refining Company, Butler, Pennsylvania and Compheye Duval of New York City. The CUTLER COMPANY sells approximately sixteen chemical products and for the most part, appear under its own brand and the brands of its customers. The management claims connections on the West Coast but its sales territory comprises the Eastern Seaboard, the bulk of the sales being made in Eastern Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland. Customers are wholesale tobacco and confectionery dealers and companies specializing in chemicals. LOUIS CUTLER is fully active and is assisted by one office employee.

Financial statements reflect tangible net worth of $23,423.00 as of February 28, 1943, and of $53,789.00 as of February 1, 1944. The company carries fire insurance amounting to $10,000. Its net sales are said to exceed $75,000.00 annually. Dun & Brad Street advised that current financial information was not available for a fair appraisal of the financial responsibility represented.

The indices were negative for LOUIS E. CUTLER, RUTH CUTLER, RUTH TAYLOR and MEYER TAYLOR.

The records of Dun & Brad Street reflect that NATHAN R. STEIN, mentioned above, was born in Philadelphia on December 10, 1913. STEIN continued the C & S CHEMICAL COMPANY after May 23, 1940 as an individual, selling sanitary chemicals to local and suburban restaurants, institutions and industrial concerns. He has no help and his office is now located at 1411 Walnut Street, Philadelphia. His net worth as of May 31, 1940, was about $350.00. STEIN had been employed by the Tri-State Laboratories in Wilmington, Delaware for four years and is a salesman by trade.

The indices of this office indicate that NATHAN R. STEIN, apparently identical, and his wife ~~DORIS STEIN~~, were arrested by the Philadelphia Police Department in July 1941, for distributing Communist Party literature. They unsuccessfully appealed a $10.00 fine. Their attorney was HARRY NEVISTAN, a Communist Party functionary and an IWO leader in this area. NATHAN and DORIS STAIN were reported to be members of the Communist Party.

One IRWIN DUBIN, an accountant, is consultant for the CHEMICAL COMPANY. The indices reflect an I. DUBIN on the Executive Committee of the Jewish Council of Russian War Relief, and an I. DUBIN on the Board of Directors of the Jewish Peoples Fraternal Order, IWO. They may be identical.

GEORGE DRENNEN

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent JOSEPH M. ADAMS:

The Washington Field Division on December 17, 1945, requested the identity of the subscriber to telephone number Swarthmore 02891. There being no such number, Swarthmore 2891R was checked and found to be listed to GEORGE DRENNEN, 256 Lowell Road, Springfield, Pennsylvania.

Records of the Voters Registration Commission, Media, Pennsylvania, Local Board No. 5, Media, Pennsylvania, and the Recorder of Deeds, Media, Pennsylvania were consulted. It appeared from these records that DRENNEN was born on June 11, 1916 at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He moved to his present address in 1944. He graduated from Drexel Institute night school and was employed as a first class machine engraver by the ITC CIRCUIT BREAKER COMPANY, Philadelphia, prior to his induction into the Army on June 16, 1945. He was still in service as of December 1945. He is described as follows:

Date of Birth	June 11, 1916
Place of Birth	Philadelphia, Pa.
Height	5'7 $\frac{1}{2}$ "
Weight	172 lbs.
Eyes	Hazel
Hair	Brown
Complexion	Ruddy

The indices were negative on DRENNEN.

JOSEPH ECKHART

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent GEORGE W. RUEBACH:

The New York Field Division on November 30, 1945, requested an examination of the records of the Central Office, Immigration and Naturalization Service in Philadelphia, on one JOSEPH ECKHART, who had arrived at the Port of New York on February 17, 1937 from Havre, France, aboard the SS PARES. His re-Entry Permit number 1119996 was issued at Washington, D. C. on October 13, 1936.

The Washington Field Division on December 14, 1945, also requested an examination of ECKHART'S file.

Mrs. HARRIET E. DAYTON, Information Clerk, Immigration and Naturalization Service, made available four applications for re-entry permits and their four respective permits as the only record on ECKHART in the Central Office file.

The first application #1066643, dated December 18, 1935 at New York City, gives JOSEPH ECKHART'S full name as JOSEPH WITOUT ECKHART, who originally entered this country at Detroit, Michigan, on March 2, 1921. His description, as it appears on his application, is as follows:

Birth date	February 2, 1897
Place of birth	Kovno, Lithuania
Height	5'11"
Weight	130 lbs.
Eyes	Hazel
Hair	Black
Complexion	Dark
Marital Status	Single
Identifying Marks	None
Residence	Hotel Vanderbilt, Park Ave. & 34th Street, New York City
Employment	Chemist, employed by JOSEPH De WYCKOFF, Ramsey, New Jersey
Relatives	Father - ADAM ECKHART Mother - MARIE GORSTEIN

At the time of this application, ECKHART indicated his temporary address abroad would be the American Club, London, England. He indicated that he proposed a two month absence from this country, with the intention of visiting England and France for the purpose of business. The application reflects the fact that, when originally ECKHART was admitted to this country, his nearest "relative or friend" in the country from which he had come, which was designated as Lithuania, was one ANTHONY GELBART, 26 Alexander Str., Kovno, Lithuania.

PH 65-4043

Likewise, upon his original entry into this country, he was destined to one PHILIP ROSENBLATT, 93 West 119th Street, New York City.

Permit #1067386, issued at Washington, D. C. on December 20, 1935 shows that ECKHART re-entered the United States on May 25, 1936 at New York City, having come as a passenger on the Normandy.

The second application for Re-entry Permit, #1107039, dated July 20, 1936 at New York City, included the following additional information:

It indicated that his last permanent residence abroad had been London, England, and that the relative or friend in the country from which he came at the time of his last entry was JOSEPH DEWYCKOFF, Aldford House, Park Lane, London, England. ECKHART proposed to depart August 8, 1936 at New York City on board the Georgia, for the purpose of visiting England on business for approximately three months.

Permit #1109744, executed July 30, 1936, at Washington, D. C. shows that ECKHART arrived in the United States September 21, 1936, having come on the airplane Douglas of the Pan American Airways and landed at the Brownsville Municipal Airport.

Application for Re-entry Permit #1115090, dated September 23, 1936 at Washington, D. C., disclosed the fact that ECKHART was now employed as a chemist for JOSEPH DEWYCKOFF, BEYER INTERNATIONAL, London, England. In his application, ECKHART indicated that his proposed temporary residence abroad would be the Hotel Ontario in Mexico City. He proposed to depart from the Brownsville Airport September 30, 1936 to visit Mexico on business.

Re-entry Permit #1116710, dated September 28, 1936 at Washington, D. C., shows that ECKHART arrived in this country at the Brownsville Municipal Airport on October 2, 1936, having again come as a passenger on board the airplane Douglas.

The fourth and last application for Re-entry Permit #1118367, issued October 29, 1936 at New York City, gave his proposed temporary address abroad as BEYER INTERNATIONAL, Brentford, Middlesex, England. ECKHART proposed to depart from New York City on November 4, 1936 on board the Queen Mary for a three month business visit to England and France. In this application, it was noted that ECKHART gave his nearest relative as JOSEPH DEWYCKOFF, Ramsey, New Jersey.

It is further noted that in all four applications ECKHART'S marital status was designated as single and his American residence as the Hotel Vanderbilt.

Re-entry Permit #1119996, dated October 31, 1936 at Washington, D. C., shows that ECKHART arrived in New York City on February 24, 1937, having come as a passenger on board the steamship Paris.

The above applications and their respective permits are the only records pertaining to ECKHART in the files of Immigration and Naturalization Service. It is particularly to be noted that the Alien Registration Files contain no references to ECKHART. Mrs. DAYTON also advised that no Immigration Visa was issued to ECKHART, in view of the fact that he had originally entered this country prior to 1924.

Two photographs and two negatives of ECKHART, taken from applications for Re-entry Permit #1066643 and #1118367, were sent to the New York Field Division on December 8, 1945.

PH 65-4043

MRS. W. A. FIELDS

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent ROBERT C. BURNS and the writer:

The Washington Field Division on December 18, 1945, requested this office to identify Mrs. W. A. FIELDS, 1724 South Broad Street, Philadelphia.

Mrs. L. J. HALLOWELL, 1724 South Broad Street was contacted under pretext. She said that this building was once a large private house, now contains light housekeeping apartments. She mentioned several tenants who lived there but not Mrs. FIELDS and she was not asked about her. In the course of the conversation, she said that the house was owned by Mrs. SOLOMON A. LISCHINSKY, 2002 Fort Davis Street, S. E., Washington 20, D. C. She said that Mrs. LISCHINSKY'S telephone number was Franklin 8260, extension 294. Mrs. LISCHINSKY, she said, was of Russian extraction and Mr. LISCHINSKY was now engaged on an important mission probably in behalf of the United States Government.

FRANK WIGMORE of the Point Breeze Station and mail carrier for this address, said that Mrs. FIELDS had relatives in Catlettsburg, Kentucky and had visited them over the Christmas Holidays.

JOSEPH HOUSER of the Post Office Sub-station at 10th and Dickinson Streets, Philadelphia, advised that Mrs. FIELDS had formerly lived at 1613 South Broad Street and that he had delivered mail to her there. He said that she received many packages from out of town but he could furnish nothing of value.

Mrs. JAMES PARISI, 1119 Wharton Street, Philadelphia, conducted a rooming house at 1613 South Broad Street when Mrs. FIELDS lived there. Mrs. PARISI was contacted under pretext and she said that Mr. and Mrs. FIELDS had come to Philadelphia from Buffalo, New York about January of 1945. Mrs. FIELDS' name was CHRISTINA but Mr. FIELDS' name, Mrs. PARISI did not know. She said that Mr. FIELDS worked at the Atlantic Refining Company in Philadelphia but that Mrs. FIELDS was not employed.

Mrs. C. M. KENDLE, Personnel Office, Atlantic Refining Company, 260 South Broad Street, Philadelphia, checked the central indices of the firm and said that there was no record of anyone by the name W. FIELDS working for the company at the present time. She also advised that there was no one by the name FIELDS, with an address on South Broad Street, presently working for the company. Mrs. KENDLE then examined the inactive records of the company with the same results.

JOHN WEST of the Personnel Office, Atlantic Refining Company, was contacted at the Refinery, 3144 Passyunk Avenue. Mr. WEST examined the records of those employed at the Refinery and said that there was no one by the name FIELDS, who could be identified with W. A. FIELDS, working there at the present time, and that there was no record of any one by that name having worked there in the past.

Mr. H. R. TIMMS of the Gulf Refining Company, 30th and Penrose Avenue, Philadelphia, checked his records for the name W. A. FIELDS with negative results.

Since it appeared in the interview that Mrs. PARISI was still friendly with Mrs. FIELDS, no further inquiries were made of her.

A description of Mrs. FIELDS given by the postman differs so widely that it is not being set out; Mrs. PARISI could not be asked for a description, although she mentioned that she thought Mrs. FIELDS to be about 35 years of age.

Before this investigation was conducted, inquiries had been made with negative results, at the Credit Bureau of Greater Philadelphia, the Voters Registration Commission in Philadelphia, Dun and Bradstreet, and Local Board No. 28, which covers the address requested.

The indices were negative on Mr. and Mrs. FIELDS.

ALEXANDER GOLDBERG is a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles at Providence, Rhode Island. He has a sister EDITH GOLDBERG and two brothers, ROBERT M. and EDWARD M. GOLDBERG.

MICHAEL MENHAM / GREENBERG

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent JOHN P. RYAN:

The New York Field Office on November 28, 1945, requested a photograph of subject MICHAEL MENHAM GREENBERG, who had registered as an alien on November 25, 1940 at Boston, Massachusetts, receiving No. 5100328.

Copies of several photographs in GREENBERG'S Immigration and Naturalization File were made and sent to the New York Field Division on November 30, 1945.

In addition, the following background information concerning GREENBERG as contained in the files of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Philadelphia, was obtained:

According to an Immigration and Naturalization report made at Ellis Island, New York, dated September 30, 1939, information is set forth that MICHAEL GREENBERG entered the United States at New York on the SS MANHATTAN with visa No. 103, issued at the American Consulate at London, England, dated August 26, 1939, and actually arrived in the United States on September 30, 1939. The report states that he was to go to Harvard University at Cambridge, Massachusetts. In his file there is also a letter from the President of Harvard University, dated November 27, 1939, reporting the fact that GREENBERG was attending Harvard University and was studying at Winthrop House, Cambridge, Massachusetts, and was carrying a full course of study at the University. The reference given by the University for GREENBERG, was one Professor R. M. PERRY, Winthrop House, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

There is also an application by GREENBERG for an extension of his stay in the United States, dated May 27, 1940. In this application, GREENBERG stated that his last foreign residence was at Trinity College, Cambridge, England and that he had passport #245421, issued at Great Britain on July 17, 1934. He stated that he had been at Harvard College from October 1939 until June 1940. His source of income was listed as $1800 per year from Harvard University as a result of his obtaining the J. H. Choate Memorial Fellowship there. The Immigration Authorities authorized an extension of his stay in the United States, until September 30, 1941.

A letter from Harvard University dated November 19, 1940, informed the Immigration and Naturalization Authorities that GREENBERG was again taking a full course of study at the University and was living at 359 Harvard Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts and Mr. JOHN B. PACKLIPPE of that same address was listed as a reference.

On November 25, 1940, GREENBERG registered as an alien at Boston, Massachusetts and was given Alien Registration No. 5100328. His Alien Registration file reflects that he re-registered as an alien on April 7, 1942, when he again entered the United States at St. Albans, Vermont. According to the Alien Registration regulations, GREENBERG informed the Authorities of the following address:

June 17, 1941--he moved from 359 Harvard Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts, to 42 Perry Street, New York, N. Y. On February 11, 1942, he moved from 42 Perry Street, New York, N. Y. to 107 West 11th Street, New York, N. Y.

Harvard University, in a letter dated November 21, 1941, notified the Immigration and Naturalization Service that GREENBERG, who was previously enrolled at the University the past year, was not attending the University in the fall session of 1941.

~~SECRET~~

As a result of a letter directed to GREENBERG'S reference namely, JOHN E. RACKLIFFE, 244 West 12th Street, New York City, information was received on December 9, 1941, that GREENBERG was living at 107 West 11th Street, New York City and that he had applied for permanent residence in the United States. There was also a notation in the file that as of March 20, 1942, GREENBERG was living at 129 E. 152nd Street, New York City.

On January 29, 1942, GREENBERG made application for a pre-examination preparatory to re-entering the United States as a permanent resident. In so doing, he made out a general information form which contains the following information:

His name at the present time was MICHAEL GREENBERG and his name given at birth was MENEHAN. His previous places of residence were: Manchester, England, from November 1, 1914 to 1933; Cambridge, England, from October 1933 to June 1939; and Cambridge, Massachusetts, from June 1939 to June 1941 and New York City from June 1941 to date. Friends in the United States were listed as: BASILAY PRESTON SCHONEVER, 159 E. 82nd Street, New York, N. Y.; SAMUEL CAHAN, 75 Charles Street, Boston, Massachusetts; and HILDA AUSTERN BRETHOLTZ, 300 E. 55th Street, New York City. His education was the Manchester School, Manchester, England; Cambridge University, Cambridge, England, and Harvard University Graduate School, Cambridge, Massachusetts. His degrees were: an M.A. and B.A. from Cambridge University, Cambridge, England and from Harvard University Graduate School a research and fellowship scholarship.

His employment was listed as Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, research and fellowship work, $45.00 per week from October 1939 until June 1941, and also the Institute of Pacific Relations at 129 E. 52nd Street, New York City, N. Y., where he was a research associate and editor at $50.00 per week, from June 1941 until present. His employment abroad was listed as - Cambridge University, Trinity College, research work and instructor at $35.00 per week from October 1938 until June 1939. His assets in the United States were listed as the Corn Exchange Bank and Trust Co. - $893.89 and the value of an automobile bought in 1941 $150.00. His assets abroad were The National Provincial Bank of England, $1400.

GREENBERG, as a result of this application, was issued a quota Immigration Visa #1369 dated April 7, 1942, and he entered the United States with the visa as a permanent resident at St. Albans, Vermont, April 7, 1942. There is also a letter in GREENBERG'S file dated January 29, 1942, from HILDA AUSTERN, assistant treasurer, Pacific Council at the Institute of Pacific Relations, in which it was stated that GREENBERG'S employment there began on June 1, 1941 at the rate of $2500 per year, and that he received an increase in salary on January 1, 1942 to $2750 per year.

In GREENBERG'S naturalization file, information was set forth that he made his petition for naturalization, #17947, on April 7, 1942 and his address at the time was 814 - 17th Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. He listed his occupation as an economist and mentioned therein that he was married on September 27, 1942, at Springfield, Massachusetts and that his wife's name is MARION. The following were listed as his witnesses on this petition: MERVIN N. BACHMAN, a lawyer at 4520 MacArthur Boulevard, Washington, D. C., and ALVIN BARBER, an economist, at 1916 R Street N.W., Washington, D. C. He was naturalized at Washington, D. C. on June 6, 1944, and was given naturalization #6370980, under the name of MICHAEL GREENBERG. His address thereon was 814 17th Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. There is also a letter in the Immigration file dated May 5, 1945, to Immigration and Naturalization Service from one R. B. SHIPLEY, Department of State Chief of Passport Section, Washington, D. C., which letter states that the State Department had received an anonymous call in which mention was made that GREENBERG had made false statements concerning his arrival in the United States and requested the Immigration and Naturalization Service to verify his entry. In a letter to the State Department, dated June 9, 1945, the Immigration and Naturalization Service Authorities stated that GREENBERG was legally admitted to the United States on September 30, 1939, at New York, on GREENBERG'S presentation of non-quota Immigration Visa #163, issued at London, England, and that thereafter GREENBERG had entered the United States in 1942, as a legal resident and was finally naturalized on June 6, 1944, at Washington, D. C.

HARRY DEXTER WHITE

The following investigation was conducted by Special Employee PAUL J. HOTTINGER:

The Washington Field Division on April 3, 1946, advised that efforts were being made to ascertain if WHITE was the true name of HARRY DEXTER WHITE. The possible surnames suggested from investigation, were WEIT and WEITZ. Extensive investigation in Washington disclosed one HARRY born October 9, 1892 in Boston, to ISAAC and SARA, both Russian born, former peddler. Investigation also indicated the possibility that JACOB and ESTHER might be the parents of the subject. One ~~NATHAN I. WHITE~~ was apparently a brother of the subject, yet the subject once listed his father, in college records, as NATHAN I. WHITE. The Office was requested to check the records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service under the surnames given, to identify the parents of WHITE, who arrived in this country from Russia prior to October 9, 1892.

Records of the Central Office, Immigration and Naturalization Service, Philadelphia, were checked with negative results on WHITE and his parents, under his present name and all variations of his name.
